Introduction-NET

- The UGC (NET) Humanities is conducted by the University Grants Commission.
  - The UGC(NET) Test will determine the eligibility of Indian National candidates for the award of Junior Research Fellowships and for appointment of Lecturers in Universities and colleges in the subjects falling Humanities (including languages), Social Sciences, Forensic Science, Environmental Sciences, Computer Science and Application and Electronic Science.
  - The UGC (NET) Humanities Test comprises of 3 papers. UGC conducts NET twice a year i.e. in the month of June and December.
  - The MULTINATIONAL-UGC (NET) package has been designed with a view towards generating supreme confidence for success at the UGC (NET) Test.
  - MULTINATIONAL-UGC (NET) course is also useful to prepare for State Eligibility Test (SET/SLET) of various States.
- From this June 2012 onwards, UGC is going to conduct NET exam in objective mode.

The New pattern of Exam is

1. The UGC-NET will be conducted in objective mode from June 2012 onwards. The Test will consist of three papers. All the three papers will consist of only objective type questions and will be held on the day of Examination in two separate sessions as under:

Session: First Paper: I 60 out of which 50 questions are to be attempted  $50 \times 2 = 100$  1¼ Hours (09.30 a.m. to 10.45 a.m.)

Session: First Paper: II 50 questions all of which are compulsory  $50 \times 2 = 100$  1¼ Hours (10.45 a.m. to 12.00 Noon.)

Session: Second Paper: III 75 questions all of which are compulsory  $75 \times 2 = 150$  2½ Hours (01.30 p.m. to 04.00 p.m.)

The candidates are required to obtain minimum marks separately in Paper-I, Paper-II and Paper-III as given below:

SCHEME OF THE TEST

The Test will consist of three papers.

Paper-I will consist of 60 multiple choice questions of two mark each will be given, out of which the candidate would be required to answer any 50 questions. The paper shall be of general nature intended to assess the teaching / research aptitude of the candidate. It is designed to test reasoning ability, comprehension and divergent thinking and general awareness of the candidate. In the event of the candidate attempting more than fifty questions, the first fifty questions attempted by the candidate would be evaluated. Total Marks of Paper-I will be 100.

Paper-II will consist of 50 objective type questions, of 2 marks each, all of which are compulsory, based on the subject selected by the candidate. The candidates will have to mark their response for each question on the answer sheet attached at the end of the test booklet. Total Marks of Paper-II will be 100.

Paper-III will consist of 75 objective type questions, of 2 marks each, all of which are compulsory, based on the subject selected by the candidate. The candidates will have to mark their response for each question on the answer sheet attached at the end of the test booklet. Total Marks of Paper-III will be 150.

The candidates are required to obtain minimum marks separately in Paper-I, Paper-II and Paper-III as given below:

Category Minimum Marks (%) to be obtained

	Paper-I	Paper-II	Paper-III
General	40 (40%)	40 (40%)	75 (50%)
OBC	35 (35%)	35 (35%)	67.5 (45%) rounded off to 68
PH/VH/SC/ST	35 (35%)	35 (35%)	60 (40%)

There will be no negative marking in Paper-I, Paper-II and Paper-III.

Only such candidates who obtain the minimum required marks in each Paper, separately, as mentioned above, will be considered for final preparation of result.

However, the final qualifying criteria for Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) and eligibility for Lecturership shall be decided by UGC before declaration of result. The test will consist of three Papers of only objective type questions and will be held on the day of Examination in two separate sessions
